

I'm really sick of the NAB dictating broadcasting policy. Thanks to the awful choice of stations on the radio I finally have gotten satellite radio for my car. This should not be silenced in any way -- the big stations brought it on themselves. I should at least be able to PAY for good radio.